

Dear FCC members,

I am a concerned citizen writing to you because the Sinclair Broadcasting Group has directed its stations to pre-empt regular programming in order to air a politically biased commercial, called "Stolen Honor". This corporation expects to use public airwaves to do this free of charge. It wants to run the commercial just prior to the tightest presidential election in history...there is no coincidence here.

The Sinclair Group has refused to run ads with an opposing viewpoint. It arbitrarily decides what the public will or will not have access to: for example, it did not allow its ABC affiliate stations to air the Nightline tribute to our fallen soldiers in Iraq.

Sinclair should have to pay to air "Stolen Honor". Please remind this company that they are obligated by law to serve the public interest. Please enforce the rules by not allowing them to use public airwaves to promote their political viewpoint/agenda.

Sincerely,

Tracey Campbell
